

Jesus Peiro gets the Origin Certificate stamp Spanish

Search and enter

The OEC seal has been awarded to Jesus Peiro after passing the audit process headed by a external professional and specialist product certification. Depth studies have been conducted in different departments, starting with R + D + I, raw materials, components or logistics. The accredited professional certifies that the Spanish firm may wear the distinctive OEC, Origin Spanish , because it meets the necessary requirements.

Brand Jesus Peiro, founded in 1988 and owned by Intersposa S.A. He has worked since its inception under the philosophy based on the requirement for the quality of all their costumes. Merche Segarra, its designer, oversees the entire process of making each of the dresses, made by craftsmen, something that makes them real gems couture. Want to reflect collections product quality, elegance and the latest trends . All this for each of their dresses is created with its own identity.

Jesus Peiro

With this seal, Jesus Peiro gives a definite step on the way to the internationalization of the brand, consolidating turn information about the origin of their products and strengthening the relationship of trust with its customers worldwide.

Jesus Peiro

f Like 0 Tweet G+1 0

Related Post "Jesus Peiro gets the Origin Certificate stamp Spanish"

A Spanish investor puts on sale the most expensive flat in London